WHY TRACTOR SUPPLY SURGED 20% IN MAY

Royston Yang, June 5, 2020 (The Motley Fool)

Tractor Supply reported a strong set of earnings for its first-quarter 2020 report, and the company does not seem to be badly affected by the COVID-19 pandemic. Net sales rose 7.5% year over year to $1.95 billion, while comparable store sales increased 4.3% year over year. Although the company withdrew its guidance for the fiscal year 2020, it still managed to open 20 new Tractor Supply stores during the quarter, underscoring its steady growth.

quarter. The company registered record sales across its channels, product categories, and geographic regions. Its e-commerce business also experienced good growth, with many customers choosing the new contactless curbside delivery option to minimize person-to-person contact during this pandemic.

Net sales are forecast to grow 24% to 29% year over year, with comparable store sales growth of 20% to 25%. The company is also relaunching its website, which should enable the business to enjoy rapid digital growth by using modern web architecture.

UNLIKE RETAILERS SEEKING GROWTH IN CITIES, TRACTOR SUPPLY TARGETS CONSUMERS LIVING THE COUNTRY LIFE

Tony Garcia Feb. 26, 2019 (Market Watch)

Chick Days, an event that brings live chickens of various breeds to Tractor Supply Co. US:TSCO stores, starts Monday and lasts through April 28. Shoppers can also buy a coop, feed, incubators, and anything else they need to get their chicken farm up and running.

"We sell everything else but the tractor," said Mary Winn Pilkington, vice president of investor relations and PR at Tractor Supply. "Anything for an authentic rural lifestyle."

Foot Locker's $275 million investment program will help build business in Asia. Tractor Supply, on the other hand, positions its stores in towns just outside of major metropolitan areas with populations of about 20,000 to 40,000 people, or in rural locations.

While many retailers are flocking to the city, targeting high-spending urban dwellers and young, millennial professionals, 80-year-old Tractor Supply is happy to live the pastoral life, and help others who want to do the same.

DOLLAR STORES ARE A RETAIL GROWTH STORY EVEN IN A DOWNTURN

Teresa Rivas, July 17, 2020 (Barrons)

The economic picture is grim. The number of Covid-19 cases in the U.S. is well over three million, and even with some hopeful signs from the labor market, more than 30 million Americans are still relying on unemployment benefits.

"Dollar stores have proven to be very resilient through recessions; there's a big portion of the country that is still struggling, whose wallets are being pinched, and they need nondiscretionary goods," says Clay Kirkland, lead portfolio manager at Intrepid Capital Management. "They're not going to drive to the

No wonder that dollar stores are adding to their physical footprint, even as so many of their peers are closing locations.

"At a time when you read about how retail is doomed and there will be thousands of store closures this year, these businesses are growing their store bases," Kirkland says.

The dollar stores have been dependable through good times and bad. Dollar General, for example, has recorded positive comparable sales for the past 30 consecutive years. Its shares are up sixfold in the past decade.

FACTORY CONNECTION BRINGS MORE BRAND-NAME CLOTHING OPTIONS TO PLAINVIEW SHOPPERS

Kaelene Hansen, April 6, 2019 (MyPlainview)

The newest local clothing store provides another option for shoppers to find brand-name pieces.

Factory Connection, which opened on Feb. 28, hopes to bring high-end fashion to Plainview at a discounted price.

The Chamber of Commerce led a ribbon cutting on Thursday and presented the store manager, Rena Guerra, with a symbolic First Tax-Free Dollar.

"All those brands that you're going to find in the bigger cities and not in the local, small towns, that's what we're trying to do, bring fashion to small towns and local communities."

Guerra was born and raised in Plainview, so she's excited to bring name brands such as Calvin Klein, Nike, Under Armour, Abercrombie & Fitch and American Eagle to her hometown.

"This company brings high-end fashion to small towns for the people who cannot travel to the big cities to get the name brands that they want," Guerra said.

"We are here to create an emotional connection," Guerra said. "We want every customer to be happy while they're shopping and happy when they leave. We want to leave that everlasting impression on them, and even if they don't find anything to buy, just to come in because they enjoy the environment."

Atlanta. Dunlap is located 23 miles from Chattanooga, the 4th largest city in Tennessee. The colorfully named Chattanooga is a transportation and historic gateway to the Deep South. An ambitious downtown redevelopment initiative, just completed with public and private support, has brought a lot of life back into the downtown area, both as a commercial and recreation destination. Attractions such as the Tennessee Aquarium, Lookout Mountain, Civil War battlefield sites, the African American Museum, and the Appalachian Trail bring thousands of people to the area, as do events like the Riverbend Festival, Bessie Smith Strut, Fall Color Cruise, the Creative Discovery Museum for children, and the Southern Writers Conference. Chattanooga is the home of NCAA Division I-AA national football championships and hosts the national softball championships every year. The local economy includes a diversified mix of manufacturing and service industries, four colleges, and several preparatory schools known throughout the South. With its scenic beauty, stable population and economy, civic vitality and cross-sector partnerships, fiscal integrity, and strategic location, Chattanooga is known as one of the most progressive and livable mid-size cities in the U.S.

CHATTANOOGA RANKED AMONG THE BEST 100 PLACES TO LIVE IN AMERICA

Dave Flessner, March 5, 2019 (Chattanooga Times Free Press)

"Gig City's got it going on," the editors of Livability said about Chattanooga. "The city ranks high in infrastructure and housing, thanks in part to its easy access to other cities (under two hours you can be in Atlanta, Nashville and Knoxville) and affordability."

Affordability ranked highest in the survey of 1,000 millennials across the country when Livability.com asked what mattered most in deciding where to

"The city is also quickly becoming a destination for tech companies and entrepreneurs — truly, the sense of opportunity and growth in Chattanooga right now is palpable," live.

As a result, Livability didn't include any city on the top 100 Best Places to Live list with a median home value of more than $250,000. Chattanooga's median home price among single-family homes sold last year by Chattanooga Realtors was $187,000, up 6.9 percent from the previous year.

Chattanooga also ranked favorably for its economy, although it got poorer ranks for health and education. Metro Chattanooga ended 2018 with an unemployment rate of 3.1 percent, well below the U.S. rate of 3.9 percent. The city is also trying to promote more business startups with the biggest business incubator in Tennessee on the North Shore and the biggest Innovation District in the downtown area for any U.S. mid-size city.

15 THINGS WE LOVE ABOUT CHATTANOOGA

Michelle Darrisaw (Southern Living)

When the wanderlust kicks in, an outdoor oasis awaits you in the South's Scenic City.

One glimpse of the skyline and natural wonder enveloping Chattanooga, Tennessee, and it's almost hard to believe this was the city broadcast journalist Walter Cronkite once famously observed as the "dirtiest city in America" in 1969. Well, thanks to a major renaissance in 1992 and the popularity of the historic hotel and hit song, "Chattanooga Choo-Choo," the burgeoning Scenic City is anything but besmirched today.

Yet even with a flourishing arts, dining, and active scene, somehow the twin music cities of Memphis and Nashville are still the top two places that come to mind when most people think of Tennessee. Hopefully, this definitive list of everything we've come to love about Chattanooga (and you will, too!) will shine a necessary spotlight on the unsung hero of the southeast.
