7-Eleven seeking 20,000 workers across US locations, adding to 50,000 already hired since March

DANIELLA GENOVESE, SEPTEMBER 21, 2020 (FOX BUSINESS)

7-Eleven is seeking to hire an additional 20,000 employees nationwide as it looks to meet continued demand for its products amid the COVID-19 pandemic.

The new hires, which will fill positions across more than 9,000 U.S. stores, will also help with orders through the company's 7NOW delivery app, which has seen an uptick in orders since the pandemic hit the country earlier this month, the company announced Monday.

In hiring 20,000 more employees, 7-Eleven CEO Joe DePinto says the company will be able to "continue to fulfill our mission to give customers what they want, when and where they want it, whether in stores or at home."

7-Eleven was classified as an essential retailer, meaning its convenience retail stores remained open since March although it quickly enhanced its cleaning procedures and added extra safety protocols to protect employees and customers.

Since then, the company -- including its independent 7-Eleven franchise owners -- has hired more than 50,000 workers to assist in its operations during the course of the pandemic.

In hiring 20,000 more employees, 7-Eleven CEO Joe DePinto says the company will be able to "continue to fulfill our mission to give customers what they want, when and where they want it, whether in stores or at home."

7-Eleven plays host to entrepreneurs' exclusive snacks, drinks

SEPTEMBER 1, 2020 (RETAIL CUSTOMER EXPERIENCE)

Convenience retailer 7-Eleven is once again supporting innovative products with its second Sips & Snacks initiative.

This year's program will stock 200 California stores with 84 exclusive items from 25 up-and-coming brands, according to a press release.

The stores participating in Sips & Snacks 2.0 are located in Los Angeles and San Diego.

"7-Eleven's Sips & Snacks initiative offers small businesses a rare opportunity to reach thousands — and potentially millions — of customers with their most innovative products.

"This selection of sips and snacks are ones that a 7-Eleven customer might not expect to find at one of our stores," 7-Eleven Senior Vice President, Merchandising and Demand Chain Jack Stout said in the release. "7-Eleven's Sips & Snacks initiative offers small businesses a rare opportunity to reach thousands — and potentially millions — of customers with their most innovative products. We are excited to help boost emerging brands' growth, development and success by giving them the chance to test their products in a real retail environment."

The products will also be available for purchase on the 7NOW delivery app for customers located in the Los Angeles and San Diego areas.

More than 750 companies applied to be invited to present their brand at the company's second annual emerging brands showcase, and 65 were invited to participate in the two-day "show and taste" expo, according to the release.

Glen Allen received Nerdwallet.com's vote for "Best place to raise a family."

Glen Allen

Over 40 Richmond businesses ranked among fastest-growing private companies by Inc. magazine in 2020.

40

Glen Allen is a suburb of Richmond, located in Henrico County, Virginia.

Lewis Ginter Botanical Garden is a beautiful flowering oasis in the heart of the town with 50 acres of themed gardens and a domed conservatory.

Only 10 minutes from downtown Richmond, the town is bordered by the Chickahominy River.

Glen Allen's Meadow Farm Museum is a historic farm and estate listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Richmond, the capital of Virginia, is among America's oldest cities.

An economically progressive city, Richmond offers a wealth of amenities not easily found among other East Coast municipalities. The city boasts beautiful neighborhoods with striking architecture, and a vast cultural and educational heritage benefitting its more than 200,000 citizens. Richmond's diversified employment base extends from chemical, food and tobacco manufacturing to biotechnology, semiconductors and high-tech fibbers. The city consistently ranks among "Best Places to Live and Work in America" by numerous national publications. Richmond is among a handful of mid-sized cities to offer a flourishing cultural community enhanced by several first-class museums and prominent universities, its own symphony, professional ballet and opera, and numerous theatre companies. The city also offers easy access to the ocean, mountains and Washington, D.C. Law and finance have long been driving forces in the economy, and Richmond is home to four of the largest law firms in the United States.

Kroger’s Mid-Atlantic Division Relocating From Roanoke to Richmond

JON SPRINGER, SEPTEMBER 22, 2020 (WINSIGHT GROCERY BUSINESS)

In a move reflecting patterns of population growth, store growth and sales growth, Kroger’s Mid-Atlantic division is moving its headquarters from its longtime home in Roanoke, Va., to Richmond, Va.

Kroger this week said its new office—which will employ more than 70 transferring and new workers—would be located in Glen Allen, Va., a Richmond suburb. Kroger last month acknowledged that it would be departing Roanoke.

“We’re excited for this transition for our company, and Henrico County has been an excellent partner throughout the past few months,” added Paula Ginnett, president of Kroger Mid-Atlantic.

The Mid-Atlantic division, one of 21 local operating divisions of the Cincinnati-based retailer, operates more than 100 stores in Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee and Ohio, employing about 18,000 associates. Its growth over the past 20 years has primarily been in metro Richmond, which Kroger entered for the first time in 2000 with the acquisition of 10 Hannaford stores spun off in the Hannaford-Food Lion merger.

Kroger has since grown to 18 stores in the region, including four Marketplace supercenters and 16 fuel centers, and is now the third-largest food retailer in the Richmond metro area behind Food Lion and Walmart, according to Metro Market Studies’ 2020 figures.
