7-Eleven Innovates to Redefine the Shopper Experience

MELISSA KRESS, JANUARY 22, 2024 (CONVENIENCE STORE NEWS)

Nearly 100 years after giving rise to the convenience store industry, 7-Eleven Inc. continues to be on the forefront of the channel, driven by its ability to tap into the wants and needs of the ever-changing consumer.

The Irving, Texas-based retail chain has a network of 13,000-plus convenience stores across multiple banners in North America and serves more than 12 million customers daily, according to Marissa Jarratt, executive vice president, chief marketing and sustainability officer at 7-Eleven.

EVP Marissa Jarratt details how the convenience retailer leverages consumer data at NRF 2024: Retail's Big Show.

Speaking at NRF 2024: Retail's Big Show on Jan. 14, Jarratt sat down with Lauren Wiener, managing director and partner at Boston Consulting Group, to talk about the retailer's ability to leverage customer data to create a better shopper experience and transform the company. Key to this is ICE: Immediate Consumption Ecosystem.

As Jarratt explained, ICE is composed of three elements:

- 1.Data insights and measurement tools
- 2.Awareness, trial and conversion
- 3.Inspiration, amplification and customer engagement

Breaking it down further, she explained that the first element is made up of three tools: C Shopper, a data insights and analytics platform that leverages purchase and shopper behavior; Brain Freeze Collective, 7-Eleven's proprietary consumer research tool comprised of more than 250,000 loyalty

7-Eleven Strikes Nearly $1B Deal With Sunoco for 204 Stores

ANGELA HANSON, JANUARY 11, 2024 (CONVENIENCE STORE NEWS)

7-Eleven Inc. will become the sole owner and operator of Stripes convenience stores and Laredo Taco Co. restaurants in the United States after acquiring 204 locations from Sunoco LP for $950 million.

The stores are located across west Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma, and will join the more than 13,000 7-Eleven, Speedway and Stripes locations that 7-Eleven operates, franchises and/or licenses across the United States and Canada.

7-Eleven International LLC Inks $1.1B Acquisition Deal

"Stripes and Laredo Taco Co. have been a great addition to our family of brands since they initially joined us back in 2018," said 7-Eleven Inc. CEO Joe DePinto. "We're excited to welcome the remaining Stripes stores and Laredo Taco Co. restaurants to the family, and we look forward to serving even more customers across west Texas, New Mexico and Oklahoma."

The acquisition is part of a food-centric initiative to increase revenue and accelerate growth.

7-Eleven grew its U.S. store footprint by 12% when it acquired approximately 1,030 Sunoco c-stores for more than $3 billion in early 2018. Under the terms of the deal, Sunoco entered into a 15-year take-or-pay fuel supply agreement with a 7-Eleven subsidiary, under which Sunoco agreed to supply approximately 2.2 billion gallons of fuel annually.

At the time, DePinto said the acquisition supported the company's growth strategy in key geographic areas, and that it could learn a great deal about how to cater to the Mexican-American customer base in south Texas.

WALL STREET
JOURNAL

LaPorte (French for 'The Door') is a city in LaPorte County, Indiana, United States, of which it is the county seat.

The City of LaPorte had a population of 22,273 as of July 1, 2020.

La Porte County communities blend Midwestern charm and big-city resources, offering opportunities to live, work and play. It was named the second least expensive place to live in the U.S. by Wall Street Journal. The low cost of living, top-notch schools and nationally ranked hospitals make La Porte County a smart place to live and a promising place to grow.

It is one of the two principal cities of the Michigan City-LaPorte, Indiana Metropolitan Statistical Area, which is included in the Chicago-Naperville-Michigan City, Illinois-Indiana-Wisconsin Combined Statistical Area.

The town was officially established in 1832, and incorporated in 1835. It became a city in 1852. La Porte, surrounded by lakes and walkable historic downtown, is the best-kept secret in Indiana. The City of La Porte is a community dedicated to outdoor recreation while fostering a vibrant downtown for businesses and remote workers. The largest industries in LaPorte, IN are Manufacturing, Health Care & Social Assistance, and Retail Trade, and the highest paying industries are Professional, Scientific, & Technical Services, Transportation & Warehousing, Transportation & Warehousing, and Utilities. LaPorte and nearby Attractions are Door Prairie Auto Museum, LaPorte County Historical Society and Museum, LaPorte County Symphony Orchestra, Kingsbury State Fish and Wildlife Area, Fox Memorial Park, Pine Lake. Self guided walking tours through the maple tree-lined Indiana and Michigan Avenues allow one to view many examples of historic architecture. LaPorte has been endowed with great natural beauty, which is evident through its numerous lakes and woodlands. The city hosts the LaPorte County Fair every July. This fair features activities like harness racing, arts and crafts, 4-H competitions and performances by nationally reputed entertainers. It attracts people from all over the country. Flights are available from the South Bend Regional Airport. Purdue University, Valparaiso University and Andrews University offer facilities for higher education.

Microsoft announces $1 billion investment in LaPorte; eyeing more in St. Joseph County

ED SEMMLER, JUNE 4, 2024 (SOUTH BEND TRIBUNE)

On the heels of purchasing land for a data center complex in St. Joseph County, Microsoft announced plans Tuesday to invest $1 billion to establish another in LaPorte, creating up to 200 new jobs by the end of 2032.

Microsoft will construct a new 245,000-square-foot data center on 489 acres at the Radius Industrial Park in LaPorte. The campus will help power widespread adoption of cloud computing and artificial intelligence.

The Microsoft announcement marks Indiana's fourth strategically located major planned data center announcement in 2024. Together, these Fortune 500 businesses have made plans to invest $14.8 billion in cloud computing and storage infrastructure in communities and regions across Indiana, creating 1,500 new jobs in Fort Wayne, Jeffersonville, LaPorte and St. Joseph County.

"Indiana is committed to being a central hub in the global economy of the future, and this latest announcement ensures Hoosier communities and talent will be key to widespread advancements in cloud and artificial intelligence technology," Gov. Eric Holcomb said in a release.

"We're excited to welcome Microsoft's new data center to Indiana and look forward to the incredible value add impact this will have on our statewide data driven ecosystem, new career opportunities, specifically the greater northwest Indiana community," Holcomb added. To support its growth in Indiana, Microsoft plans to hire a variety of positions, including environment engineers, IT technicians and managers, inventory and asset technicians and managers, security personnel, and site managers, according to the release.

Amazon breaks ground on $11B data center campus

HEATHER PFUNDSTEIN, OCTOBER 9, 2024 (NORTHWEST INDIANA BUSINESS)

Amazon Web Services welcomed state officials to the groundbreaking of its new data center campus in St. Joseph County.

Indiana Secretary of Commerce David Rosenberg and Gov. Eric Holcomb were among officials who met Sept. 30 in the Century Center's Discovery Ballroom in South Bend to celebrate the start of the $11 billion investment.

The Indiana Enterprise Center includes 2,920 acres for tenants such as American Electric Power, Air Gas, Carris Reels, Edcoat, Five Star Sheet, Gavilon Grain, Helena Chemical, Cleveland-Cliffs Tek and Kote, Just Packaging, Navistar, R&L Carriers, Red Hen Turf Farm, St. Joseph Energy Center, Smith Ready Mix, and Alkegen.

"We appreciate the warm welcome to St. Joseph County and the state of Indiana," said Kevin Miller, vice president of Global Data Centers at AWS, in a press release. "The strong spirit of partnership we've seen from local and state officials, community colleges and community organizations inspired great confidence as we developed our plans in the Region."

The Indiana Economic Development Corp. said on its Facebook page that "AWS's presence in New Carlisle will bolster Indiana's economy of the future and provide at least 1,000 new career opportunities that Hoosiers deserve."

"This investment will include our continuing commitment to fostering workforce development and educational initiatives in areas where we operate, and we look forward to helping nurture the next generation of talent in the Hoosier State," said Roger Wehner, AWS director of economic development, in a press release.

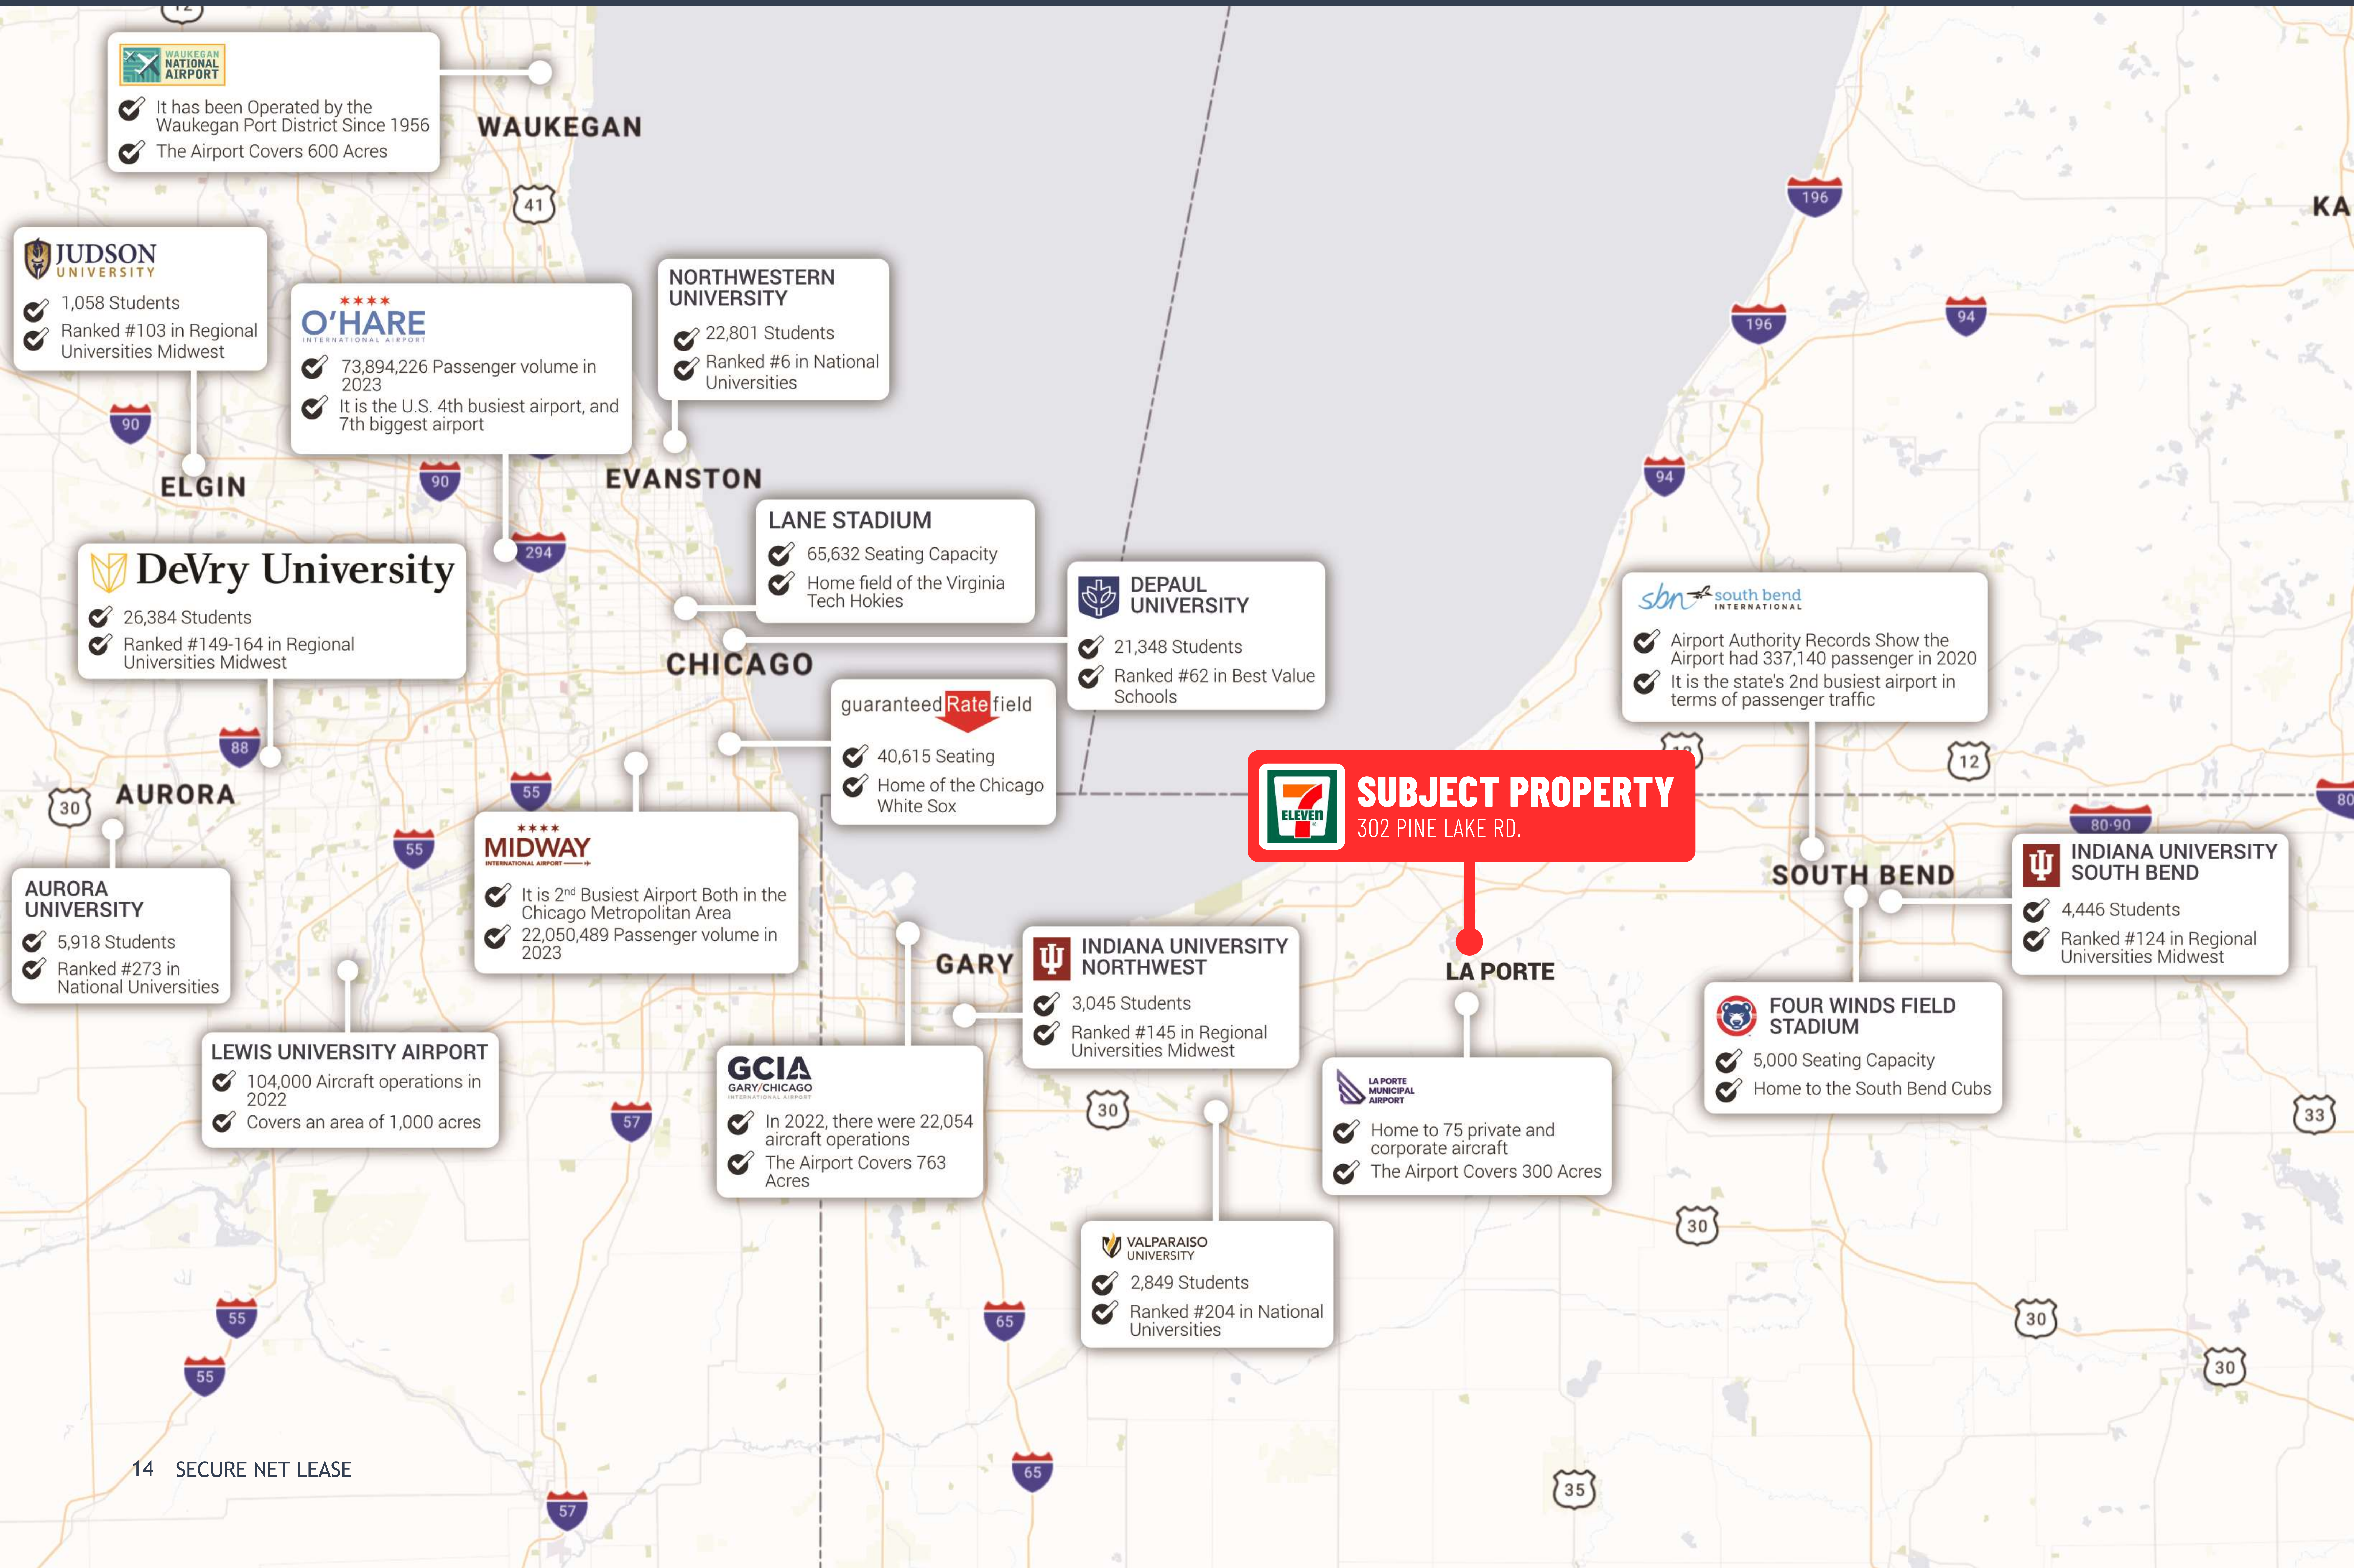

According to Amazon, the company has invested $21.5 billion in Indiana since 2010 and created 26,000 full- and part-time jobs. It also has implemented four solar and one wind farm.
