7 Brew hits 500th stand milestone in just 8 years

ALICIA KELSO, OCTOBER 13, 2025 (YAHOO FINANCE)

No restaurant company grew as fast as 7 Brew in 2024. The 8-year-old, Arkansas-based drive-thru coffee company's sales jumped by 163% year-over-year, while its footprint increased by 78% to end with 321 total stores, according to Technomic data.

It's worth noting that 2024 was no fluke. Since 2019, the chain has achieved more than 4,000% growth

Today, 7 Brew is celebrating the opening of its 500th stand, located in Toms River, N.J. The company is also opening nine additional stands today, in Alabama, Arkansas, Connecticut, Louisiana, Mississippi, Ohio, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Utah.

The company said it plans to open hundreds more locations in the coming years as demand for convenient, high-quality drive-thru coffee continues to surge.

If you think the chain's momentum is going to plateau anytime soon, think again. In a recent interview, chief marketing officer Nick Chavez said its growth is accelerating.

"We have a long runway in terms of new stands opening across the country as well as stands that continue to grow at a healthy rate with superior unit economics within our existing base," he said.

Those unit economics include average unit volumes just above $2 million, which is higher than Starbucks, Dunkin', and Tim Hortons, and on par with Dutch Bros. Those AUVs support stores that average just 600 to 700 square feet in size.

In addition to strong unit economics, Chavez said there are several additional pillars propelling the chain to meteoric heights — speed, friendly service, and "flavorful beverages.

7 Brew is one of the most compelling growth stories in America

DANNY KLEIN, MAY 30, 2025 (QSR)

The drive-thru coffee chain added 141 locations across 2024.

Few, maybe zero, restaurant chains are growing faster on a percentage basis than a drive-thru coffee chain founded eight years ago in Rogers, Arkansas—the home of the first Walmart. 7 Brew started as a stand offering seven choices (hence the name): Blondie (caramel and vanilla breve), Brunette (hazelnut and caramel mocha), Smooth 7 (white chocolate and Irish cream breve), Cinnamon Roll, White Chocolate Mocha, German Chocolate, and Triple 7 (Smooth 7, but with six espresso shots).

With average unit volumes nearing $2 million, 7 Brew has quickly become one of the strongest performers in the quick-service beverage segment.

By the start of 2022, there were just 14 of them. But that number would rise to 40 by the end of year. And then, the gates opened. Across 2023, 7 Brew lifted by a net 140 restaurants to get to 180. How did it perform in 2024? The chain's just-released FDD unveiled a near-mirror-like run of 141 net expansion across the year to bring 7 Brew's footprint to 321 restaurants. Or, 2,100 percent growth since 2022. The brand is now the second-largest drive-thru-only coffee chain in America behind Dutch Bros, which recently passed 1,000 locations. It also noted in its FDD, as of December 29, 2024, there were roughly 2,500 future stands under development agreements.

7 Brew's 2024 base broke apart as 297 franchises (up 136 and 137 net in the prior two years, respectively) and 24 company owned (climb of five and three in the past two calendars).

DFW
METROPLEX

Decatur, Texas, is a thriving small city and the county seat of Wise County, offering an ideal blend of historic charm and modern growth just northwest of the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex.

Located approximately 45 minutes from DFW International Airport, 50 miles from downtown Dallas, and 40 miles from downtown Fort Worth, Decatur provides residents and businesses with easy access to the region's vast workforce, amenities, and economic opportunities while maintaining a welcoming small-town atmosphere.

Decatur, Texas is a charming Wise County seat with 8,266 residents and prime location just 40-50 miles from Dallas and Fort Worth, fueled by manufacturing, energy, and logistics in the booming DFW Metroplex.

With a population of about 8,266 and a median household income of $73,179, the community supports a stable local economy driven by manufacturing, energy, healthcare, and logistics, bolstered by a 535-acre business park, robust infrastructure, highway/rail connectivity, and proximity to major employers like those in the broader DFW area. The city's vibrant downtown features the iconic 1896 pink granite Wise County Courthouse, restored historic buildings housing boutique shops and eateries, and a Texas Main Street Program that fosters economic vitality through events like the Decatur Swirl food-and-wine festival, business grants, and seasonal beautification. Residents enjoy six public parks, a highly rated school district, a low cost of living, and abundant recreation—from trails and community gatherings to cultural preservation efforts—making Decatur a prime spot for families, professionals, and investors seeking quality of life near urban hubs.

The Dallas-Fort Worth (DFW) Metroplex is the largest metropolitan area in Texas and the fourth-largest in the United States, home to over 8.3 million people as of 2024.

Spanning 11 counties in North Texas, the region includes major cities like Dallas, Fort Worth, Arlington, Plano, and Irving, each contributing its own cultural and economic identity.

Dallas itself is the 3rd largest city in Texas and the ninth-largest in the United States. A key economic and cultural center, Dallas anchors the northern part of the state with strengths in finance, tech, and transportation.

The Metroplex is a dynamic economic powerhouse with a diverse and resilient economy, driven by sectors such as finance, technology, healthcare, logistics, aerospace, and defense. Corporate headquarters for Fortune 500 companies like AT&T, American Airlines, Southwest Airlines, and ExxonMobil call the area home, while the region's central location and strong infrastructure make it a national hub for distribution and commerce. In addition to its economic strength, the DFW Metroplex offers a rich array of cultural and recreational attractions. Dallas is known for its vibrant arts district, high-end shopping, and professional sports teams including the Cowboys, Mavericks, and Stars. Fort Worth, often referred to as "Where the West Begins," blends cowboy heritage with modern amenities, featuring the historic Stockyards and world-class museums like the Kimbell Art Museum. Outdoor enthusiasts enjoy sprawling park systems, lakes, and trails throughout the region, while families are drawn to destinations like the Dallas Zoo, Fort Worth Zoo, and Six Flags Over Texas. With a relatively low cost of living, a booming job market, and a diverse, growing population, the Metroplex continues to be a top destination for both businesses and new residents.

TEXAS DISCLAIMER

7 BREW DECATUR, TX

Approved by the Texas Real Estate Commission for Voluntary Use

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

Information about brokerage services

Before working with a real estate broker, you should know that the duties of a broker depend on whom the broker represents. If you are a prospective seller or landlord (owner) or a prospective buyer or tenant (buyer), you should know that the broker who lists the property for sale or lease is the owner's agent. A broker who acts as a subagent represents the owner in cooperation with the listing broker. A broker who acts as a buyer's agent represents the buyer. A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the parties' consent in writing. A broker can assist you in locating a property, preparing a contract or lease, or obtaining financing without representing you. A broker is obligated by law to treat you honestly.

If the broker represents the owner

The broker becomes the owner's agent by entering into an agreement with the owner, usually through a written – listing agreement, or by agreeing to act as a subagent by accepting an offer of subagency from the listing broker. A subagent may work in a different real estate office. A listing broker or subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first. The buyer should not tell the owner's agent anything the buyer would not want the owner to know because an owner's agent must disclose to the owner any material information the owner knows.

If the broker represents the buyer

The broker becomes the buyer's agent by entering into an agreement to represent the buyer, usually through a written buyer representation agreement. A buyer's agent can assist the owner but does not represent the owner and must place the interests of the buyer first. The owner should not tell a buyer's agent anything the owner would not want the buyer to know because a buyer's agent must disclose to the buyer any material information known to the agent.

If the broker acts as an intermediary

A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the broker complies with The Texas Real Estate License Act. The broker must obtain the written consent of each party to the transaction to act as an intermediary. The written consent must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. The broker is required to treat each party honestly and fairly and to comply with The Texas Real Estate License Act. A broker who acts as an intermediary in a transaction:

- Shall treat all parties honestly
- May not disclose that the owner will accept a price less than the asking price
- Submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the owner;
- May not disclose that the buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the buyer; and
- May not disclose any confidential information or any information that a part specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose unless authorized in writing to disclose the information or required to do so by The Texas Real Estate License Act or a court order or if the information materially relates to the condition of the property.

With the parties' consent, a broker acting as an intermediary between the parties may appoint a person who is licensed under The Texas Real Estate License Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of one party and another person who is licensed under that Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions.
