7-Eleven Plans to Open 1,300 New U.S. Convenience Stores by 2030

JESSICA LODER, APRIL 15, 2025 (CSTORE DIVE)

The retailer also expects to roughly double the number of stores that include a QSR, from 1,080 to 2,100.

- 7-Eleven plans to open 1,300 new stores in North America through 2030, according to its parent company Seven & I Holdings' fiscal fourth quarter earnings presentation last week.
- The retailer also expects to roughly double the number of stores with QSRs from 1,080 to 2,100, incoming CEO Stephen Dacus said during the fiscal Q4 earnings call.
- These growth and network improvement plans come as Seven & I is preparing to spin off 7-Eleven's North American c-store business into its own public entity.

The brand is rolling out larger-format stores with expanded foodservice, projected to drive up to 45% higher sales.

7-Eleven's plan to open 1,300 new stores through 2030 comes about six months after sharing that it would open 600 stores over four years, including 500 between 2025 and 2027. The 2030 target shows that 7-Eleven intends to ramp up annual store openings, and it has already increased the number of store openings planned for the next three years from 500 to 550.

The 1,300 goal would represent about 10% of the 12,963 stores 7-Eleven had in North America in February. It's also more stores than all but four of its c-store competitors have in their entire networks, according to the NACS top 100.

It's unclear if this will increase 7-Eleven's overall store count, since the company also plans to close some underperforming stores. 7-Eleven closed more locations than it opened in fiscal 2024 and expects to do the same in fiscal 2025, according to the company's 2024 summary.

7-Eleven to remodel over 7,000 c-stores in North America through 2030

APRIL 23, 2026 (CSTORE DIVE)

The remodels will use 7-Eleven's "new standard" store design, the large format, food-focused design that the retailer revealed in late 2024.

This adds to the 1,300 NTIs under this format 7-Eleven was already planning to open by 2030 — a blueprint that remains in place, according to the presentation.

Seven & i continues to emphasize that 7-Eleven is on pace to hit its target growth even as the convenience retailer is once again set to close more stores than it opens across North America through this fiscal year.

When 7-Eleven launched the new standard format nearly two years ago, initial plans were to open over 600 of these locations through 2027. Those plans have now significantly expanded.

Up until now, 7-Eleven had only outlined plans to build new locations under the new standard format. But given the success of those sites, the retailer is upping the ante, as it will start converting older locations to the modern design. In the presentation, Seven & i said that as it looks to elevate the customer experience at 7-Eleven, it must "fundamentally improve existing stores first."

Setting out to remodel over half of its 13,000 c-stores across North America underscores leadership's confidence in the new standard c-store design. According to the presentation, these locations yield about 30% more traffic after one year and are expected to yield 44% more sales than 7-Eleven's traditional stores after four years.

BONUS DEPRECIATION

— 7-ELEVEN LAKE WORTH, TX (FORT WORTH)

100% Bonus Depreciation for Qualifying Convenience Stores

What It Is

Full expensing of eligible property in the year it's placed in service—no depreciation over time. Permanently reinstated at 100% for qualifying assets under the One Big Beautiful Bill Act (OBBBA).

Investor Benefits

- Tax Benefit: Investors can deduct 100% of qualified property costs in the year placed into service. There is no expiration or phase-out.
- Strategic Flexibility: With bonus depreciation no longer time-sensitive, acquisition decisions can focus on fundamentals and timing that align with investor goals.
- Convenience stores stand out for their bonus depreciation advantages: 7-Eleven is the most viable net lease option currently eligible for bonus depreciation, as other corporate c-store brands typically sign ground leases that don't qualify.

Lake Worth, Texas

Lake Worth is a compact and established city in western Tarrant County, positioned immediately adjacent to Fort Worth within the Dallas–Fort Worth Metroplex. The community is strategically located near major aerospace and defense employment centers, including Lockheed Martin’s F-35 production facility and Naval Air Station Joint Reserve Base Fort Worth, which together employ more than 30,350 personnel and generate over $1.3 billion in annual economic impact.

The city benefits from direct access to Loop 820 and State Highway 199, providing efficient connectivity to regional job centers and DFW International Airport — the third-busiest airport in the world with 87.8 million annual passengers. Additional demand drivers include proximity to Fort Worth’s medical district, offering more than 1,015 hospital beds, and major recreational destinations such as Lake Worth and the Fort Worth Nature Center, which attract tens of thousands of annual visitors.

Dallas–Fort Worth–Arlington, TX

The Dallas–Fort Worth Metroplex is the fourth-largest metropolitan area in the United States, home to more than 8.5 million residents and one of the most diverse economies in the country. The region consistently ranks among the national leaders in domestic population growth, corporate relocations, and job creation across aerospace, logistics, healthcare, and advanced manufacturing sectors.

DFW’s retail market closed 2025 with a record-high 95.3% occupancy rate, reflecting sustained consumer demand, strong employment fundamentals, and long-term economic resilience across the metro.

Interstate 820 (I-820)

Interstate 820 functions as a critical loop serving western Fort Worth and surrounding communities, connecting Lake Worth to major employment hubs, retail corridors, and logistics infrastructure. The corridor provides direct access to Interstate 30, Interstate 20, and DFW International Airport, supporting daily commuter traffic and regional commerce throughout Tarrant County.

IN THE NEWS

7-ELEVEN LAKE WORTH, TX (FORT WORTH)

Dallas-Fort Worth's Population Gain Ranks Second in U.S.

ELEANOR DEARMAN, MARCH 24, 2026 (FORT WORTH STAR-TELEGRAM)

Dallas-Fort Worth grew by 123,557 people between 2024 and 2025, the second most of any metro area in the country, according to new estimates released by the U.S. Census Bureau.

The Metroplex’s population now stands at 8,477,157, driven by 55,444 international migrants, 18,197 net domestic arrivals, and a natural increase of 50,819 residents. The sustained influx underscores continued demand for retail, housing, and infrastructure across North Texas submarkets, including Tarrant County and the Lake Worth trade area.

TEXAS DISCLAIMER

7-ELEVEN LAKE WORTH, TX (FORT WORTH)

Approved by the Texas Real Estate Commission for Voluntary Use

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

Information about brokerage services

Before working with a real estate broker, you should know that the duties of a broker depend on whom the broker represents. If you are a prospective seller or landlord (owner) or a prospective buyer or tenant (buyer), you should know that the broker who lists the property for sale or lease is the owner's agent. A broker who acts as a subagent represents the owner in cooperation with the listing broker. A broker who acts as a buyer's agent represents the buyer. A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the parties' consent in writing. A broker can assist you in locating a property, preparing a contract or lease, or obtaining financing without representing you. A broker is obligated by law to treat you honestly.

If the broker represents the owner

The broker becomes the owner's agent by entering into an agreement with the owner, usually through a written – listing agreement, or by agreeing to act as a subagent by accepting an offer of subagency from the listing broker. A subagent may work in a different real estate office. A listing broker or subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first. The buyer should not tell the owner's agent anything the buyer would not want the owner to know because an owner's agent must disclose to the owner any material information the owner knows.

If the broker represents the buyer

The broker becomes the buyer's agent by entering into an agreement to represent the buyer, usually through a written buyer representation agreement. A buyer's agent can assist the owner but does not represent the owner and must place the interests of the buyer first. The owner should not tell a buyer's agent anything the owner would not want the buyer to know because a buyer's agent must disclose to the buyer any material information known to the agent.

If the broker acts as an intermediary

A broker may act as an intermediary between the parties if the broker complies with The Texas Real Estate License Act. The broker must obtain the written consent of each party to the transaction to act as an intermediary. The written consent must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. The broker is required to treat each party honestly and fairly and to comply with The Texas Real Estate License Act. A broker who acts as an intermediary in a transaction:

- Shall treat all parties honestly
- May not disclose that the owner will accept a price less than the asking price
- Submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the owner;
- May not disclose that the buyer will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer unless authorized in writing to do so by the buyer; and
- May not disclose any confidential information or any information that a part specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose unless authorized in writing to disclose the information or required to do so by The Texas Real Estate License Act or a court order or if the information materially relates to the condition of the property.

With the parties' consent, a broker acting as an intermediary between the parties may appoint a person who is licensed under The Texas Real Estate License Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions of one party and another person who is licensed under that Act and associated with the broker to communicate with and carry out instructions.
